

Jeane W Mathenge, MBA PMP® PRINCE2® PMD PRO®

PROGRAM & PROJECT MANAGEMENT PROFESSIONAL

Over 20 years' experience in program and project management as a practitioner, consultant, facilitator and trainer in the USA, Canada, Kenya and the wider East Africa and South Sudan region.

Jeane is known for being passionate about projects and is a champion for mainstreaming the discipline of project management as a fundamental enabler to business strategy and transformation. Her background in consulting locally and internationally covers multiple sectors in technology, health, insurance, financial, hospitality, logistics and construction. She is a US trained practitioner, with experience in highly projectized environment with fortune 500 companies including State Farm Insurance Company in Bloomington Il. This inspired her certifications in PMP®, Prince2® and PMD PRO®, and ongoing PHD studies in Project Management. Her vision is to advance project management talent in Kenya and institutionalize sound operative project practices to effect change based on value realization.

Jeane is currently serving as President of the Project Management Institute (PMI) Kenya Chapter, after serving as the Vice President for Education and Professional Development. She pioneered the first local Mentorship forum in Project Management to coach upcoming and working project practitioners; she is a founding member of Women in Projects Kenya to advance talents in women project leaders, and a pioneer member of Women in Project Management SIG, USA. Jeane is a mentor in Women in Africa Initiative (Deloitte), the first international platform dedicated to the economic development and support of leading and high potential African women. She also supports growth of active youth leader leaders and change makers to deliver meaningful impact in local communities through the Global Action and Impact network (GAIN).

Through her firm Global Protocol Solutions, Jeane has implemented transformative organizational change through strategic, PMO and Enterprise systems programs in the NGO, public and private sector. She leverages her firm as a platform to demonstrate the value of effectively applied project management practices in organizational change, Health, real estate, Information, Communication and Technology. Her consulting portfolio includes State Farm, USA, Intrawest Vancouver Canada, NIC Bank, CBA Group, Equity Bank, Finserve Ltd, Equity Foundation, Mitchell Cotts KE, UAP Old Mutual SS, Liaison SS, Ernst & Young SS, Sovereign Group, Kenya Medical Practitioners & Dentists Council, Association of Medical Councils of Africa (AMCOA), Tourism Fund, UN Women, Maersk Kenya, Malteser

International and others.

Jeane is affiliated with APM Prince2®, PMI USA, PMI chapters in Kenya, Illinois and Vancouver and coached numerous leaders to PMP® certification. As a trainer and speaker, she has facilitated Project Management learning at various forums such as PMI events, Big 5 Africa, and universities including AMREF International, Strathmore Business School, International Leadership University, Heartland Community College Business School Illinois. Her research interests are in strategic project management, performance, governance and benefits management.

“Project Management is now a core discipline of management. It is the preeminent method for making things happen and implementing change in the world” ~Michael Porter, 2016
