

Lungile Khambule

(PMP, Prince 2 Practitioner)

Programme Management Professional

Lungi is an accomplished, passionate, and extremely successful professional in the Project Management, Telecommunications and IT industries. She is currently responsible for the management of Vodacom Business PMO Senior and Junior Project Management resources since joining in 2016.

She has performed in this role with aplomb and has overseen the development and deployment of a broad range of technology solutions to both Public and Private Sectors. This, for clients in South Africa and beyond the borders achieving significant client experience, revenue, and people growth.

Lungi is a recipient of a number of individual Excellence Awards including the Top Performer Award for 2020/2021 Financial year.

Before joining Vodacom, Lungi was overseeing the delivery and management of Projects for Transnet Freight Rail, a position she held for over a Year.

Lungi's career in the IT industry was nurtured and bloomed at Internet Solutions where she developed her career from a Service coordinator to a Service Manager before branching into Project Management and developing up to a Project Team Manager Role.

Her exponential growth resulted from her dedication and discipline in whatever she does both on corporate and academic platforms.

She is a highly decorated academic and holds a B-Tech Degree in IT from the University of Johannesburg, a PGDipBA from the University of the Witwatersrand, Masters in Business Administration from Mancosa and is currently pursuing her Masters in Digital Business (University of the Witwatersrand)

Her professional journey is accompanied by international certifications as she has achieved a PMP and PRINCE2 Practitioner and ITIL certifications.

She is passionate about what technology can achieve for economic and social growth and loves the daily challenge of engaging clients and employees of diverse cultures across the continent.

Lungi enjoys a healthy lifestyle and is an ardent fan of hiking and outdoor camping.

Lungi is blessed with a 16-year old daughter who has automatically become her best friend.