

Liz Jordan is the Interim Head of Marketing and Operational Readiness for PMI Citizen Developer. In this capacity, she has been working to create and build the PMI CD community through engaging content. Ranging from blogs to interviews to interactive webinars, Liz's role is centered on providing the community with the content they need on their citizen development journey.