

Nadia is an exceptionally well-organized, focused, industrious and resourceful Professional with a knack for results and quality outputs. Nadia Ahmed Abdalla is a committed civil servant who has had a distinguished and quite illustrious career in both public and private service.

She has more than 2 years' experience working with the Government of Kenya as the Youngest Deputy Youth Minister in the Ministry of ICT, Innovation and Youth Affairs in the Republic of Kenya and a solid academic background with her Bachelors in Public Relations and Mass Communications with a minor in Journalism as well as a Master in Arts in International Relations and Cultural Diplomacy.

Nadia has exhibited excellent analytical and problem solving skills; ability to handle multiple projects while producing high quality work in a fast-paced, deadline-oriented environment, with a vast hands-on experience in public policy formulation and program management. In particular, she is an avid champion of the girl-child, youth, young women, diversity and inclusion rights in Kenya and Africa.

Nadia is a practical expert in the development and implementation of public policy , communication strategies, lobbying and advocacy campaigns, capacity building programs, designing and implementation of resource mobilization strategies among other functional and operational skills.