

Furera Isma Jumare holds a Bachelor of Science (B.Sc.) degree in Botany and three Master's degrees – M.Sc. Crop Physiology and M.Sc. Rural Development from Ahmadu Bello University in Zaria, and M.A. International Development Management from University of Manchester.

She worked with the Central Bank of Nigeria for 21 years before retiring in 2009 to found her consulting firm, MicroDevelopment Consulting Limited. She was also an Independent Director on the Board of Union Bank of Nigeria Plc. From 2017 until her appointment as Director General of Jigawa State Investment Promotion Agency in 2020.

Furera is a member of the Institute of Directors, Nigerian Institute of Management (Chartered) and Fellow, Institute of Management Consultants. She has also served as a member of the Kaduna State Council on Agriculture and member, Editorial Board Leadership Newspaper.

She was in March 2022 featured as one of 50 inspiring Nigerian women by Business Day Newspaper.