

Edem Banibah is an ICT Business Professional with extensive experience in Project Delivery and Customer Success.

He is also involved in Business Value Coaching and Training as a Value Equation Certified Practitioner - providing learnable, teachable knowledge and skills that enables everyone in an organization; from senior business executives, business managers, operational staff, project & technical specialists to define valuable projects that execute strategy and deliver successful business outcomes.