

Prof. Mwangi Peter Wanderi is an experienced, motivated and results-oriented teacher / trainer, researcher, grant writer, project manager and administrator. With a strong inclination to policy research and training, he has within the last 30 years taught, developed and implemented diverse externally funded research projects and youth employability intervention programmes, capacity-building projects in various education-related fields, both in mainstream physical education as well as in sports entrepreneurship and youth empowerment projects. He has supervised a total of 56 students in Physical Education and related disciplines at postgraduate level including PhD and Master levels.

He has also published widely. He served as the Acting Vice-Chancellor at Mount Kenya University between November 2019 and April 2020. Since 2012 to present he has been coordinating the Leuphana University's (Germany) Students Training for Entrepreneurial Promotion (STEP), which he prides himself as having introduced in the country 2012 and considers himself the Father of STEP in Kenya.

He introduced STEP for the Youth at the counties outside the Universities in 2014 courtesy of UNESCO Regional Office for Eastern African Region. He has been instrumental in introducing and coordinating the United Nations Academic Impact (UNAI) SDG 10 hub on Reduced Inequalities at the University.