Your employee is requesting permission to attend the PMI Africa Conference 2023 to be held in Nairobi, Kenya from 10 – 12 September at Emara Ole Sereni Hotel. This is a professional development opportunity which empowers attendees with the knowledge, skills and relationships required to stay competitive in an ever-changing global environment. Please see below the registration fees:

In addition, many of the educational sessions at the conference allow your employee to earn Professional Development Units (PDUs) towards the maintenance of his/her PMI certification. PMI has aligned its certification program with the employer-identified skills depicted in the PMI Talent Triangle to ensure that practitioners are equipped to remain relevant in a continually changing business environment. The ideal skill set as identified by employers is a combination of technical, leadership and strategic and business management expertise, many of which are provided in educational sessions at the PMI Africa Conference.

Costs related to travel, accommodation and transportation will be delegates' responsibility.

Thank you for offering your employee the opportunity to attend a PMI Africa conference. If you have any questions or need additional information, please feel free to reach out to us on the email address below.
